LOVE – LEARN – SHARE – SERVE with eternal purpose through faith in Jesus Christ

A WORD FROM PASTOR MATTHEW

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you," Jeremiah 29:11-14

We are just starting to get settled in the new year and it is ahead of us with many possibilities. Although the past 2 years have been anything but enjoyable, they have not been void of joy. So while we are still at the beginning, I'd like to share a few things that as a church we can do to make our congregation a place of spiritual growth, care, and outreach.

How are you doing with our congregational book, We Make the Road by Walking? I chose this book to help us reorient ourselves into the Christian tradition smack dab in the middle of Neo-orthodox theology; the basics. This is an excellent opportunity for us to journey together and refresh our hearts with the basics of our Christian faith. If this book isn't doing it for you, do not neglect this opportunity to begin a new prayer life. I'd be honored to help design a specific plan for you that works with your personality and schedule. Doing these things together will make our church better, more biblically aware and focused on Christ.

I have a confession to make: My memory is limited. I wish I had a state-of-the-art hard drive installed in my head that made it possible for me to remember every word anyone ever says to me. If you share something with me on a Sunday morning, please know that if it is not written down somewhere else, I'll probably forget. Even if it is the most important thing in your life at that moment, chances are, I'll forget. Am I that calloused? By no means! I simply have my head filled with leading worship, leading the singing, preaching, sometimes a children's moment, paying attention to the technology cues, and then teaching a lesson to our high school class immediately after worship. I'm also probably trying my best to remember the thing that someone ahead of you just shared. So yes, please share with me what is going on, but please make sure and help me out by writing it down, emailing the church office, or putting a confidential prayer card in the offering plate after service.

These are difficult times all around and we are all emotionally taxed. If you find yourself in need to just vent, to just be heard, please let's make an appointment to have a confidential conversation. You can contact me directly or through the church office to schedule a time.

So as 2022 begins, let's make a commitment to grow in faith by study, clearly communicate with one another to lift one another up, and continue to seek opportunities to serve others. I pray that this year is one of health and many blessings. As my mentor Rev. Jack Scott often says, "May God bless you real good." In Christ,

What is a Methodist?

John Wesley (1703-1791) was an ordained Anglican priest. At a prayer meeting in London on May 24, 1738, he had a powerful spiritual experience which inspired him to become the first teacher of "Methodism."

After his experience in 1738, Wesley set out with his brother Charles to form societies of "Methodists," so called because the members followed a daily routine of religious observance and social work.

Taken from About Being United Methodist, 2007 Edition.

We have seven of our church family busy with studies and away from home. Let's take the opportunity to send them cards of encouragement and laughter and some simple treats. We need to make sure they know their church family loves them and prays for them! Drop your cards and any treats off at the display by February 6th and the office will take care of mailing them. Amy Johnson, Alexandria Meyer, Adam Zietlow, Wyatt Crowel, Maddie Woodrow, Nick Crane, and Olivia Woodrow.

THINGS ARE MOVING WITH HOSPITALITY. After the hospitality brainstorming session on ideas from folks on what they wanted to see here at Acton, the Strategy Council team got together and started working. You might have noticed a few things are back including bulletins, pew pads for attendance, and an occasional greeter! This is just a start. In the next few months, they are hoping to have Attendants in place on Sunday mornings to extend hospitality to our congregation and our visitors. They are also putting together a Pathway of Welcome for our visitors – taking folks from the visitor card to connection. Exciting things are happening in 2022. If you are interested in being part of the hospitality improvements coming, please email the church office.

Biblical hospitality means we are willing to be uncomfortable, taking on the position of servant so that others can become more welcome around us.

MISSION COLLECT UPDATES

Thanks to all who helped with our mission collections recently.

- CROP WALK – We collected $845 for Crop Walk at the October dinner and Missions matched that for a total of $1,690 going to Crop Walk. This is an increase over the last few years to thanks to all who participated and to Bill Howell for overseeing this project.

STOCKING HATS

Phyllis Talyor is continuing the tradition of knitting stocking hats for the homeless. She and her late husband, Ed, started this many years ago. Phyllis donated 40 beautiful and warm hand knitted hats to Wheeler Mission for our homeless neighbors. Thanks Phyllis!

WOMEN OF ACTON

TOGETHER IN MISSION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

WHAT IS THE UMW?

United Methodist Women is the largest denominational faith organization for women in the world. We are focused on mission and providing opportunities for women to grow spiritually.

If you attend a United Methodist church, you are a member of the United Methodist Women. Also, you do not need to be a member of the church to be a United Methodist Woman.

At Acton, UMW has so many opportunities for all women including:

- Host Fellowship Dinners
- Reading Circle
- Acts of Kindness
- Blanket Ministry
- Women's Luncheons
- Women's Retreat
- Craft Fair
- Advent Tea

So, please, every woman, think how you may enjoy becoming a part of Acton United Methodist Women.
